In the past week, I've been from Lloydminster to Edmonton, drove through Jasper and Banff, camped in Lake Louise, hiked Sentinel Pass at Moraine Lake, spent 2 nights in Calgary, worked 2 days, packed, drove to and hung out in Saskatoon, then in Regina and later flew to Montréal. In a 24-hour period I've gone from taking my coworker's quad to 100 km/h on a grid road after repairing a stubborn compressor in Alberta to riding Le métro.

Thank you Stephanie Kokonas and family, for being such awesome hostesses (it's not often that I get to use that word!) this week. You have made our road trip that much better for us all.

Thank you Erin, Garret, Luke and the rest of the Robsons, Kyla, Alana, Jason and Cat. You have all helped to make my summer the most fun and adventure-filled ever. I love you all!

Andrew - you are more than welcome to come to my house whenever you'd like! and to bring your awesome (and somewhat crazy) friends with you :)

I had a blast that weekend! Hope you are enjoying being back home and in school again love
