

Looking Back

Monday, March 3, 2008 at 10:26am

I've been writing here since November 2006. I decided to take a look-see at my earlier posts to see how my writing has changed - and it was really neat to remember how I thought then.

I think I'm going to try and re-emphasize some of the points I've made then, like my thoughts on religion, perspective and happiness. It's nice to see that my writing has gotten better since my first few posts.

Indeed, there are quite a few things I think I should reaffirm. I'll get on that soon.

Cheers!
